

Child Malnutrition Analysis Dashboard (1983–2019)

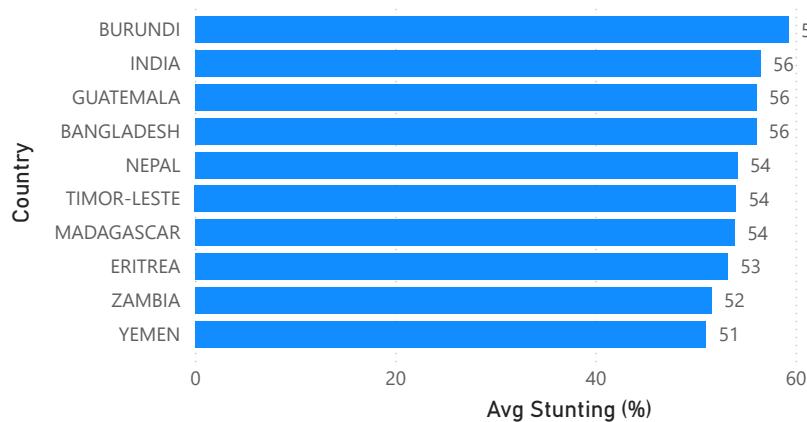

Global trends and country-level comparison of child malnutrition indicators

260M

Trend of Child Malnutrition Indicators (1983–2019)

Top 10 Countries by Average Stunting (%)

Sum of Survey Sample (N)

29.18

Avg Stunting (%)

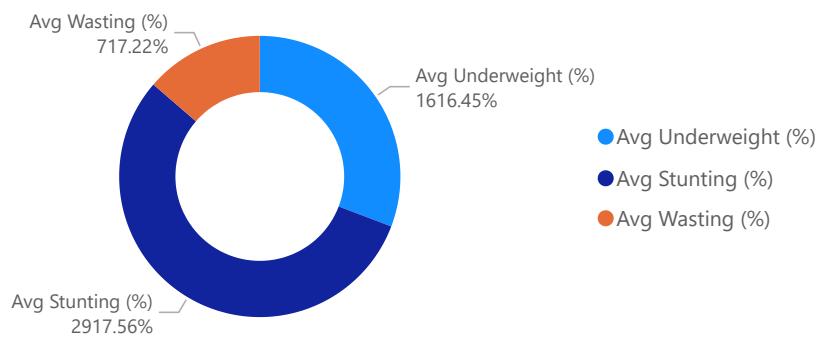

16.16

Avg Underweight (%)

7.17

Avg Wasting (%)

Relative Contribution of Malnutrition Indicators (Average %)

Top-10 Avg Stunting (%)

Country	Avg Stunting (%)
BURUNDI	59.30
INDIA	56.48
GUATEMALA	56.10
BANGLADESH	56.08
NEPAL	54.19
TIMOR-LESTE	54.07
MADAGASCAR	53.92
ERITREA	53.23
ZAMBIA	51.60
YEMEN	51.05
Total	54.79

Key Insights

- Stunting remains the most severe form of child malnutrition globally.
- Overall malnutrition indicators show a declining trend over time.
- Low-income and developing countries dominate the top stunting rankings.
- Wasting shows higher year-to-year fluctuations compared to other indicators.

Vishakha Padole – Child Malnutrition Dashboard